

Different submission types

Guidelines for Authors

Specific guidelines for different types of submissions to the Journal of Premier Research, including word count limits, citation styles, and formatting specifications, are outlined as follows:

1. Original Research Articles:

- Word Count: Typically, original research articles should range from 3,000 to 6,000 words, excluding abstract, references, tables, and figures.
- Citation Style: Follow the American Psychological Association (APA) style for references.
- Formatting: Use a structured format with sections including Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, and Conclusion. Include clear headings and subheadings for each section.

2. Review Articles:

- Word Count: Review articles can vary in length but generally range from 5,000 to 10,000 words.
- Citation Style: APA style for references.
- Formatting: Organize the review into coherent sections covering the topic comprehensively. Provide an insightful synthesis of existing literature and research findings.

3. Case Studies and Case Reports:

- Word Count: Case studies and reports should typically be concise, ranging from 1,500 to 3,000 words.
- Citation Style: APA style for references.
- Formatting: Present the case in a structured format, including background information, clinical presentation, diagnostic assessments, treatment interventions, outcomes, and lessons learned.

4. Editorials and Commentary:

- Word Count: Editorials and commentaries are typically shorter, ranging from 800 to 1,500 words.
- Citation Style: APA style for references.
- Formatting: Offer insights, opinions, or critical reflections on current issues or developments in the field. Use a clear and engaging writing style to captivate the reader's interest.

5. Letters to the Editor:

- Word Count: Letters should be brief and focused, typically ranging from 500 to 1,000 words.
- Citation Style: APA style for references.
- Formatting: Address specific issues or concerns related to previously published articles, editorials, or commentaries. Provide a clear and concise argument or viewpoint.

6. Educational and Training Materials:

- Word Count: Educational materials can vary in length but should be comprehensive and informative, typically ranging from 2,000 to 5,000 words.
- Citation Style: APA style for references.

- Formatting: Provide detailed tutorials, guides, protocols, or best practice recommendations relevant to clinical performance evaluation and malpractice prevention. Include illustrative examples and practical tips for implementation.

7. Supplementary Materials:

- Include supplementary materials such as additional data, appendices, or multimedia files as necessary to support the main text.
- Clearly indicate the relevance and purpose of supplementary materials and provide appropriate citations in the main text.

Authors are encouraged to consult the journal's specific author guidelines for any additional instructions or requirements related to manuscript submission. Adhering to these guidelines ensures consistency, clarity, and adherence to the journal's standards, facilitating the review and publication process.